

Faculty Position Description

At Atlanta Dance Central, we accept and care for each student individually. Students are nurtured and provided with a safe and welcoming space to learn. They are challenged to overcome difficulties, inspired to grow as people and dancers, and achieve new levels of excellence. They discover who they are and build the confidence to love themselves. With this wisdom, they experience the freedom to become their best self and pursue the life they want.

Atlanta Dance Central is seeking a joyful, caring, inspiring dance educator for our school in Roswell, GA to begin serving as substitute teacher with the intention of joining our team in Fall 2021. We are looking for a brilliant and committed mentor who is passionate about their work, extremely reliable, a great role model, an outstanding communicator, and a dedicated team player. Our Teaching Team loves to exceed the expectations of our students and to create cherished memories for each child and parent in our studio.

In this role, you will:

- Have a genuine love of educating and a passion for helping students grow
- Create long-lasting connections with students, parents and other teaching team members
- Delight in leading and engaging a class of young children
- Take creative risks in your classroom to help ALL students feel included
- Delight our clients and exceed their expectations with above and beyond service
- Use your knowledge of early childhood development and ADC curriculum to prepare lesson plans for every class
- Collaborate with other team members on student progression & choreography for recital
- Attend team trainings to expand your knowledge and continue to grow personally and professionally
- Believe in our values of acceptance, authenticity, & growth and demonstrate them through your example
- Deliver exceptional and fun classes to every level of student
- Treat every client with respect and compassion
- Enjoy teaching a variety of dance styles, levels, and ages

We are seeking a team member who will dive right in and give their heart to our students.

To be successful in this role you must demonstrate that you have:

- A true desire to serve. Our mission is to create a community of vibrancy and love. Your role is an essential part of the experience to help our clients feel included, valued and cherished. You understand that students and their care are highest priority. You want every student – no matter who it is – to have the best experience. This includes anticipating their needs and bringing a healthy dose of wow-factor to your interactions with clients. We aim to put a smile on our students faces and create a safe haven for them!
- A passion for excellence. You go above and beyond on tasks and hold yourself to a high standard of excellence in every project you take on.
- Initiative. You have a strong ability to figure things out and think creatively to solve problems independently. You apply this creativity to your classroom and are able to determine ways to engage different types of students.
- An eye for detail. You take pride in the presentation of your classes, choreography, and self. You recognize that everything speaks and hold yourself to the upmost standards of excellence.
- Ability to prioritize and get things done. When deadlines approach, you rise to meet them.
- Fast tech learner. We use a variety of tech integrations and will ask you to get up to speed quickly to use them. Experience in Google Suite & Square is a plus.
- Fabulous communication skills. You are outstanding at maintaining relationships and excel at keeping in contact with people. You take personal responsibility for your actions and pride yourself on your integrity. You are kind, enthusiastic, exude warmth, and find it easy to connect with people. Our greatest measure of success is client retention and you understand that the preserving and cherishing the relationships we have with our clients is top priority.
